WHY SKI AUSTRIA?

Austria is the original iconic ski destination. Traditional authenticity now goes hand-in-hand with large investments into resort infrastructure, connections and snowmaking technology. SkiBound has been there from the start, and our Austrian team has built up over 30 years of solid relationships with local suppliers.

SKIBOUND WILL GET YOU THE MOST OUT OF THIS ICONIC DESTINATION

TERRAIN > the Austrian Alps are blessed with a long, snow-sure ski season and a wide range of terrain types.

TERRAIN > Austria offers a variety of ski resorts, from the traditional charm of Kitzbühel to bustling, modern Zell am See and Obertauern.

TEACHING > local ski schools are renowned worldwide, and private group tuition means that all levels will master the slopes at their own pace.

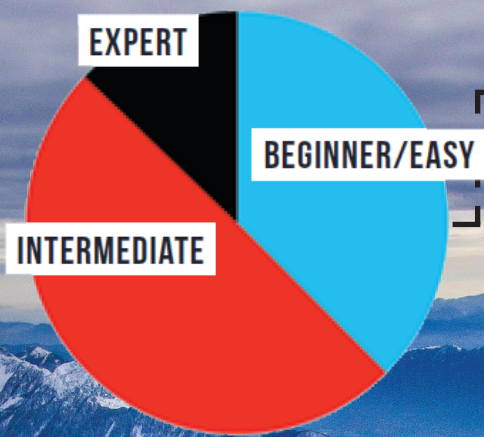

APRÈS-SKI > there's an abundance of traditional evening entertainment ideal for schools, including bowling, curling, ice skating and horse-drawn carriage rides.

FUTURE > in recent years there's been huge investment in resorts... modern infrastructure is married to authentic charm to give your students the best of both worlds!

WHY SKI ITALY?

Italian skiing is all about choice and variety. There are slopes and trails suited to all confidence levels. Diverse après-ski offers a range of new experiences (fancy a night-skiing session?) and, of course, great food! With our long experience of operating in Italy, we'll create an itinerary that is both comprehensive and flexible. SkiBound's Italian resorts give each school group something new.

WHATEVER YOU WANT FROM ITALIAN SKIING, SKIBOUND CAN DELIVER

SLOPES > home of the fantastic Milky Way ski area, six resorts straddling Italy and France, offering over 400km of piste.

EXPERIENCES > choose from purpose-built resorts such as Passo Tonale, or traditional towns and villages including Bormio and Cesana.

HOTELS > many of the hotels on offer are family-run, where no two days are the same. Ask them for some local recommendations, and enjoy their fresh, home-cooked food.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES > Italian resorts are famous for their warm welcomes and friendly locals, and you'll find exquisite food and interesting culture on every corner.

OPTIONS > all this choice may feel overwhelming... so tell us what you're looking for and we'll sort the rest!

WHY SKI ANDORRA?

A ski trip to Andorra offers a mixture of experiences, both on and off the slopes. We can pack your itinerary with options to entertain students after a full day on the slopes.

SKIBOUND WILL GET YOU THE MOST OUT OF YOUR SCHOOL SKI TRIP

CULTURE > a unique mix of French, Catalan and Spanish offers a wealth of new experiences from one small state in the Pyrenees.

SUN > Andorra enjoys many sunny ski days thanks to its position facing the Mediterranean Sea.

MOUNTAINS > the average elevation of Andorra is 1,996m and there's slopes for everyone. Two top-rated ski areas of Vallnord and Grandvalira are both great for beginners.

SHOPPING > get all your souvenirs and stock up on local delicacies at fantastic rates!

INVESTMENT > the region features many reinvigorated ski areas, with huge investment into modernising technology and lift systems.

WHY SKI THE USA?

The US has so many options for ski trips, with sweeping bowls, wide open glades and tree-lined runs providing terrain for all skiers. Both coasts boast great snow records, and in-resort hospitality can't be beaten with all the amenities, support, and apres ski options needed for the most incredible trip ever.

ANOTHER EPIC SKIBOUND SKI TRIP!

ADVENTURE > add memorable stopovers in New York City, Boston, Washington D.C., San Francisco or Los Angeles.

SKI SEASONS > long, dependable seasons with reliable snow records and excellent snowmaking facilities.

PROGRESSION > resorts have designated learner areas, slopes are rarely overcrowded and no language barrier means that everyone gets the most bang for their buck.

SERVICE > the USA is renowned for its fantastic hospitality and 'service with a smile'.

SAFETY > the US is popular with schools as there's no alcohol issues. If you're not over 21 you're not getting served!

ICING ON THE CAKE

EPIC STOPOVERS IN ICONIC AMERICAN CITIES

In-resort hospitality is a big deal in the USA, with school groups provided with all the amenities, support and outstanding après-ski needed for the most incredible trip ever. Best of all, your group can also experience the States off the slopes by including stopovers to America's most iconic cities.

EAST COAST USA

NEW YORK

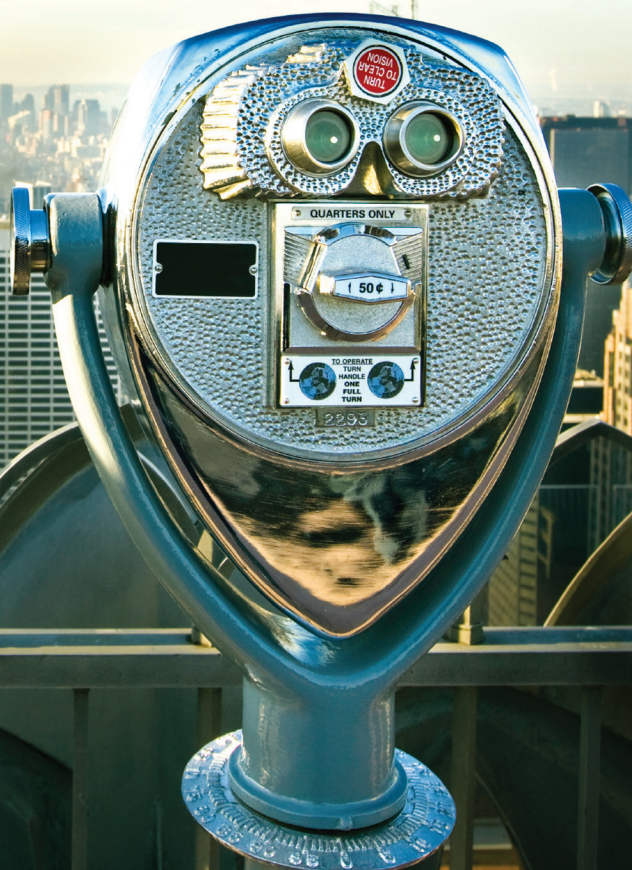

Push your students' senses to the limit with the bright lights of Times Square, the magnificence of the Empire State Building and the grandeur of Central Park. Catch a game at Madison Square Gardens or try out your moves on the Central Park ice rink – the options are limitless!

BOSTON

Home to many iconic landmarks such as Harvard University, the Freedom Trail and the Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston is a great choice for groups looking to reflect on their trip and get in some last-minute experiences before heading home.

WASHINGTON D.C.

The captivating history of the country's capital is a top East Coast destination. See your students marvel at the White House, and visit the Capitol Building, Washington Monument, and Lincoln Memorial to learn more about America's intriguing past.

WEST COAST USA

SAN FRANCISCO

Capture that perfect group selfie in front of the Golden Gate Bridge, or ride the world's last manually-operated cable car system! Pier 39 is always popular with students, who can take part in organised activities – including bay cruises, an aquarium and a marine mammal centre – or explore a variety of specialty shops and restaurants.

LOS ANGELES

Keep your eyes peeled for celebs and continue the movie theme with a visit to Universal Studios. For a more educational day out, there's the California Science Center – the largest hands-on science centre on the West Coast. Santa Monica pier offers the perfect balance of fun and learning, with plenty of people-watching alongside interactive experiences reflecting on environmental pollution and sea life preservation.

LAS VEGAS

Vegas is becoming a popular destination for student tours, with an increasing number of youth-friendly activities such as Adventuresome, the country's largest indoor theme park. The Natural History Museum offers an educational contrast to the dazzling lights. And outside the city centre there's a wealth of geographical beauty to explore, including the Red Rock Canyon National Conservation area, Hoover Dam, and even the Grand Canyon.

WHY SKI CANADA?

Canada is an established destination for school skiing, thanks to its reliable mix of snow and hospitality. For everything on and off piste, we'll support you with reliable customer service.

Canada is the holy grail for many skiers, with enviable snow depths and terrain in the Rocky Mountains in the west, to the French-speaking region in the East.

RELY ON SKIBOUND FOR A GREAT SCHOOL SKI EXPERIENCE

BEAUTY > the Canadian Rockies offer some of the most spectacular ski views available.

SNOW > near-guaranteed snow conditions in a range of world-famous ski resorts.

SERVICE > Canadian hospitality is some of the best in the world, with English-speaking hoteliers, restaurateurs and ski instructors.

ENJOYMENT > impressive evening entertainment options, such as dog sledding, tubing, curling, night skiing, and ice hockey games.

TRACK RECORD > consistently-high feedback from previous groups, with 87% rebooking across our partner resorts.

WHY NOT INCLUDE A CITY STOPOVER?

SkiBound can arrange a short break stopover in many iconic cities across Canada:

- Calgary*
- Montreal*
- Edmonton*
- Vancouver*
- Toronto*

CULTURE, NATURE, SPORT AND HISTORY IN A CANADIAN CITY STOPOVER

A ski trip across the pond also offers something truly exciting – a city stopover! SkiBound's chosen resorts give you the opportunity to visit some of Canada's most vibrant cities and take your ski trip to the next level.

CALGARY

Located in the state of Alberta, close to SkiBound resorts Banff and Jasper, it was the first Canadian host of the winter Olympics in 1988. Considered as one of the best places to live in Canada, Calgary will not disappoint with a wide range of attractions.

VANCOUVER

See your students explore flora and fauna in beautiful Stanley Park, (best discovered by bike), take the cable car up to Grouse Mountain to catch a glimpse of some bears, or take a boat trip to watch whales in their natural habitat. Vancouver is within reach of SkiBound resort Big White.

MONTRÉAL

The city spreads out from a central island and teems with metropolitan vibes – well worth a visit to put those language skills into practice! Groups travelling to Tremblant are best placed to stopover in Montréal.

TORONTO

Known for its music and theatre scene, your group can enjoy a memorable show or concert, or if sports are more up your street, catch a game of hockey – Canada's favourite sport. You can even combine your ski trip with a visit to the world-famous Niagara Falls!

EDMONTON

Edmonton is a great option for a stopover during your ski trip. One of the most exciting draws of the city will certainly be West Edmonton Mall. North America's largest shopping centre, boasting 800 shops, a waterpark, ice hockey stadium, cinema, hotels and even the world's largest indoor rollercoaster!
